

DAVID ALLEN

is a Director and co-founder of Griffin Capital. Prior to forming Griffin Capital, Mr. Allen was a portfolio manager with AMP Capital Investors from 1998 to 2002 where he managed $900 million of property portfolios for domestic and international groups. Prior to joining AMP Capital Investors, he worked with Colliers International in Australia, Singapore, and India. He has specialised in international property investment for private, corporate, and pension fund groups. David has more than 23 years of property and property funds management experience. He is an associate member of the Australia Property Institute, the licensed holder and a Responsible Officer of Griffin Capital's Australian Financial Services Licence; a graduate of the University of South Australia (Bachelor of Applied Science in Property Resource Management (Valuation)) and a graduate of the University of Western Australia (MBA, Finance). He is married with a daughter.

IAN MCCAWLEY

is the General Manager and a co-founder of Griffin Capital. Prior to joining Griffin Capital, Ian was Company Secretary and Finance Manager at AMP Capital Investors where he managed $2.5 billion in funds through the legal, financial and regulatory requirements for this group and previously for Schroders Property (later taken over by AMP Capital Investors) over a period of 30 years. Prior to joining Schroders, Ian worked in the mining industry for Mount Morgan Limited. Ian is a Responsible Officer for Griffin Capital's Australian Financial Services Licence, a retired Associate for the Institute of Company Secretaries; a retired Certified Practising Accountant, is married with three grown children and two grand children.

DAVID WEBSDALE

is a Director and co-founder of Griffin Capital. Prior to joining Griffin Capital, David was a portfolio manager at Multiplex Capital (now Brookfield) where he oversaw more than $2.5 billion in assets. Previous roles include portfolio management at the Ronin Property Group and AMP Capital Investors. Prior to joining AMP Capital in 1997, David worked at Colliers International as a valuer. David has more than 18 years experience in property valuation and property funds management. He is an associate member of the Australian Property Institute, a Responsible Officer for Griffin Capital's Australian Financial Services Licence and a graduate of the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology (Bachelor of Business, Property), is married with three daughters.

